FIFTEEN CENTS

Safety Building pondered

THE MAYORS OF ANTIQUITY from 1950 through 1977 were captured on film by professional photographer Joe Rush. From left: Murrill W. Cunningham, 1957-1965; Ray Toft, 1965-1973; Bob Wilton, 1973-1977, James W. McMillen, 1950-57, and Michael J.

Haley, the present mayor. The historic photo loses a lot in newspaper black and white. A large, beautiful color photo, by BJ Rush Studio, enhances the inside of the village hall.

'Trick or Treat' hours set

"Trick or Treat" hours were set at Monday night's village board meeting.

The Antioch village officials decided to let youngsters do their annual "Halloween handout" thing from 3 to 6 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 31.

Sue Koppa, coordinator of parks and recreation, said she is planning a Halloween program from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. that evening, including a "House of Horrors" at the American Legion Hall.

IN OTHER ACTION at Monday night's meeting, Superintendent of Public Works Walter Shepard received permission to submit to the state a plan to alleviate some of the village's traffic problems.

Included would be traffic lights at Orchard and Main streets. The state would fund two-thirds of the project, Shepard said, and the lights might be installed within a year. Main St. or Hy. 83, is a state highway.

Bids on the installation of a civil defense siren on the St. Stephen's church property were turned over to the village safety committee.

Trustee Don Amundsen said a village committee is working on the possibility of a pension plan for public employees.

PLANNING COMMISSION Chairman Ken Wierschem said in a letter to the village board that his group has voted 7-0 against the idea of taking the sign ordinance out of the village zoning ordinance.

He said the reasons are that (1) petitioners for signs should go through the public hearing process, and (2) the present process gives the public a chance to know what's happening.

"Haste makes waste," Wierschem added.

TRUSTEE RON CUNNINGHAM got passage of a motion giving the village its own ordinance in regard to possession of marijuana.

The village attorney can now process violations, instead of leaving it up to the state's attorney. Fines can range from $25 to $500.

Fire Chief Tod Maplethorpe was authorized to discuss the eventual extension of Depot St., to the west, with the United Methodist Church.

Chamber seeks to avoid scheduling conflicts

The Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry is compiling a "Community Calendar."

The purpose is to prevent two organizations from scheduling events for the same day. Please help!

If you belong to an organization, call the chamber office with any events you have scheduled even if they are the "annuals" that are run on a specific day each year.

If you have upcoming events, call the chamber and ask if any other events are scheduled for that day.

With your cooperation, we can avoid scheduling conflicts in the future.

For further information call the Antioch Chamber of Commerce & Industry at 395-3381 or come to its new office at 880 Main St. behind the police station.

The hours are 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Christmas plans made by Moose

By JERRI POLSON

Forty-six members participated in the Christmas-in-October walk for the children at Mooseheart and the senior citizens at Moosehaven, Fla.

Many gifts and cash donations, with which to purchase needed items, were received by chairmen Judy Phillips and Sherrie Lovell, to be sent to Mooseheart and Moosehaven, along with checks for their Christmas funds.

ONE NEW MEMBER, Carlotta Gasperini, sponsored by Sherrie Lovell, was enrolled here.

Get-well cards were sent to Audrey Pickett, Marge Hansen, Anna and Clyde Nettles, and Leonard Kohl.

The Loyal Order is sponsoring a hayride on Oct. 22. Those who wish to participate can sign up at the bar. Everyone should meet at the Moose home by 8 p.m. to ride the wagons to Shangri-La Woodlands.

A HALLOWEEN Dance will be held Oct. 29. Tickets can be purchased from publicity committee members or at the bar. Prizes will be awarded for best costumes. Music will be by Seymour Butts. That afternoon, from 2 to 4 p.m., the children of Moose members will be entertained at a Halloween party. Children's names must be registered in advance at the lodge.

SENIOR REGENT Judy Cook reminded members to bring items for the food basket to be given to a local needy family for Thanksgiving. Dorothy Laursen is chairman and any cash donations will be used to purchase perishable items at the last moment. Items can be brought to the next three meetings, through Nov. 17.

Attending the convention at Peoria on Oct. 7, 8 and 9 were David Zickus, Howard Laursen, Jim and Judy Page, Scotty and Norma Lowe, Lloyd and Dorothy Ottenstroer, Ed and Betty Dahlke, Evelyn Lowe, Judy Cook, June Ballenger and Jerri Polson.

Ed Dahlke received his fellowship degree, Norma Lowe her Green Cap and Jim Page was installed as Third District President. The next meeting will be held Thursday.

Ronald Reagan Speaks Out On UN Labor Group

For some time now, I have urged a reassessment of the United States' role in the United Nations and especially the disproportionate share of its expenses we pay.

UN decisions concerning the expulsion of the Republic of China (Taiwan), the admission of the Communist Vietnamese government, the recognition of the Palestine Liberation Organization — to name a few — have robbed the organization of what little credibility it has had as a moral force in world affairs.

One positive step towards reducing our involvement was taken in 1975 by then-Secretary of State Henry Kissinger when he gave the required two-year notice of our intent to withdraw from the International Labor Organization, a technical agency of the United Nations. At present, the United States pays one-quarter (about $20 million a year) of the budget of the agency, whose purpose is to set world-wide labor standards and focus on world labor and social problems. Unless a decision to the contrary is taken, our withdrawal will go into effect on November 6.

Thirty-six members of Congress have written to President Carter asking him to reconsider the U.S. withdrawal, despite the fact that Congress has already endorsed it by eliminating all funds for our country's share of the budget. In their letter, the congressmen cited the ILO's role in promoting social and economic justice and its unique machinery for implementing the human rights standards it has adopted. In addition, it also appears that President Carter is being pressured by Douglas Fraser, president of the powerful United Auto Workers.

RONALD REAGAN

I believe that Secretary Kissinger made the correct decision. President Carter should stick to it.

Automatic Bloc Vote

In his 1975 letter, Kissinger outlined the conditions required for continued U.S. participation in the ILO. There is scant evidence to indicate that a reassessment is in order. The United States, as leader of the free world, is increasingly prevented from exerting any influence in the ILO debates, which like most General Assembly discussions are characterized by the automatic bloc vote of Third World and Communist countries.

Those who argue that the unique tripartite structure with its equal representation of government, employers and the workingman makes our presence essential ignore the Soviet and Third World government domination of their member delegations which, in effect, impairs the effective functioning of that structure. In fact, the U.S. workingmen's representative from the AFL-CIO and the Chamber of Commerce representative are both strongly convinced that we should withdraw.

ILO Ignores Due Process

In a UN meeting earlier this year, the United States listed two specific actions which might prompt a reconsideration of our present position. One asked that the members reverse a resolution approved in 1974 condemning Israeli occupation of Arab lands, and the other sought to create a special committee to screen resolutions for political content. The first resolution never came to a vote as a result of Arab maneuverings. The second failed to reach the full assembly.

The ILO's concern for human rights, like that of the General Assembly, has been highly selective. The agency has ignored due-process requirements and has, over and over again, opted for political expediency. The record of this agency makes further U.S. participation useless, and a complete withdrawal should be accomplished.

BING CROSBY

left us more than songs

By JERRY PFARR

We have often thought how fortunate we are to be living in a time when radio, movies and television have given us so many personalities to enjoy.

None of us knows what the future will bring and those who lived in all of the previous centuries never got to share the gifts that God gave Bing Crosby and he, in turn, gave to us.

It is only those of us who have been alive in this era who got to know Bing as if he were a personal friend. Not to mention Bob Hope, Elvis Presley, Johnny Carson, Marilyn Monroe, Mary Tyler Moore, Bob Newhart, Arnold Palmer, Groucho Marx, Frank Sinatra, Sammy Davis Jr., Dean Martin ...

We could go on forever, couldn't we?

'Richard Burton, Elizabeth Taylor, O.J. Simpson, John F. Kennedy, Sir Laurence Olivier, Clark Gable, Humphrey Bogart ...

BY NOW, YOU HAVE the idea ...

Bing Crosby's personal autobiography was "Call Me Lucky." How about calling us lucky for being alive in this day and age?

I liked what Jeff Lyon wrote in the Chicago Tribune after "Der Bingle" died last Friday:

"Groucho made us laugh, Elvis made us wriggle, but Bing made us glad."

Harry Lillis Crosby, the easy-going, golden-voiced baritone whose career as a singer and actor spanned five decades, died of a heart attack after playing golf in Madrid, Spain. He was 73.

He collapsed after finishing 18 holes in 85 shots and was rushed to a hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

Crosby was playing golf with three Spanish champions.

WHEN HE WAS YOUNGER, Crosby was a par golfer, good enough to play top amateur tournaments and cavort with the pros.

THE NEWSPAPERS HAVE BEEN FULL of tributes to Bing Crosby in the last few days, but that wasn't enough for us, so we read "Bing and Other Things," the book written by his widow, Kathryn.

She was from Texas and 23, Bing was 53, when he took an interest in her. He called her in Texas and the man who answered the phone said:

"So you're Bing Crosby. Well, I'm Harry Truman." And he hung up on Bing.

"I can't think of any better way for a golfer who sings for a living to finish the round," said an emotional Kathryn Crosby Friday, a few hours after Bing died.

"They told me that Bing had a very good round. I'd like that to be said," she said, smiling with tears in her eyes.

FRANK SINATRA, also a well-known singer and fellow actor, said: "The death of Bing Crosby is almost more than I can take. He was the father of my career, the idol of my youth and a dear friend of my maturity."

THREE YEARS AGO when Charles Thompson wrote the book, "Bing," he asked Bob Hope for a postscript.

"Nobody has ever reached his proportions," said Bob, "and I hope he never reads this because I don't want him to think that I care for him."

But when his friend died last week, Hope couldn't make "the show go on." He cancelled a performance, saying "I just can't be funny tonight."

Pretty soon they'll be playing "White Christmas" over and over, and Bing Crosby will live on.

The main thing he left us, though, isn't his songs ... it's his lifestyle. We couldn't choose a better one to emulate.

Mayor Mike Haley was supposed to be present Monday morning for the ribbon cutting of the new Illinois Bell telephone company office in Orchard Plaza. But he didn't appear.

We called this to his attention at Monday night's village board meeting and the mayor smiled and said:

"I couldn't make it. I tried to call them but the line was busy."

BIG NIGHT coming up. Next Tuesday, Oct. 25, the Antioch Fire Department will have its third annual "Old Timers Night" at the fire station.

Dinner begins at 6:30 and former firemen are invited to attend.

The committee members tell me they are working hard to put together an interesting program and are hoping for a good turnout.

Hey, listen ... anytime Antioch's fire fighters get together for fun you can count on one thing - the program will be interesting!

SUE KOPPA, COORDINATOR of Antioch's Parks and Recreation program, has announced that "trick or treat" hours in Antioch will be from 3 to 6 p.m. on Monday, Oct. 31. From 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. a Halloween program is planned at the American Legion hall.

Sue said there will be "movies for people of all ages."

Just kidding, we asked: "What kind of movies are you going to have for us middle-aged folks?"

"King Kong," Sue answered with a smile.

A LOT OF US feel that Antioch is a very special place in which to live.

A reason we feel that way is portrayed in the photo on PROGRESS CONTINUES to be made on Antioch's bicentennial sawmill project, a re-creation of the village's 138-year-old historical landmark. With the water wheel firmly in place, the sawmill is well on the road to completion. Walt Shepard, superintendent of public works, Dick Stroner, building commissioner, Kevin Shepard and Mayor Michael Haley worked 10 hours to assemble the spruce water wheel - a massive 18 feet in diameter with a 4-foot face. "We're shooting for a July 4 grand opening," said Shepard, adding there is more work to be done in the pond area and the mill before the 10-horsepower wheel will turn water. Shepard said he is grateful to villagers who are contributing everything from concrete to muscle in reproducing the mill. In 1839 a saw mill built by Hiram Buttrick was constructed at Sequoit Creek and upon it naturally grew a community, reads one county history book.

Antioch officials realize that the community is growing and, like others in Lake County, should have some type of zoning to protect homeowners and businessmen. Mayor Murrill Cunningham probably will have his greatest difficulty in getting members of the Board of Trustees to serve, because the zoning matter will take much time. The new village of Lindenhurst has not only a zoning plan, but a planning commission of seven members which organized Tuesday night.

Although inspection is not all completed, Fire Chief Edgar Simonsen said that on the occasion of Fire Prevention Week, the condition of Antioch buildings is better than ever. "In general, wiring is better and hazards are less than previous years," the chief said. In fire drills, the Antioch Township High School was emptied of its 652 students in 85 seconds; St. Peter's (a three story building) in one minute and 45 seconds. Grass Lake school, with its many doors, can be emptied in 15 seconds.

In the Antioch Major Bowling League last Friday, Chester Jermakowicz of Johnson's Deep Lake Resort was high individual scorer with a 694 total. Whee!

The Antioch High sophomore football team smothered the Grant Bulldog sophomores 30-6 last Saturday. A thrilling touchdown was made by quarterback Dick Wolff who returned a Grant kickoff 65 yards. Chip Eberman, right halfback, scored the fourth touchdown on a 35 yard run around end. Information was not available on the fifth touchdown.

10 YEARS AGO: OCT. 19, 1967

First tabulations of the Illinois Lions Candy Day drive on Friday, Oct. 6, indicate success in reaching the half-million dollar goal for the state. Antioch chairman Ray Jenssen reports that about $1,000 was collected in Antioch during the drive.

Two enterprising Antioch youths of high school age climbed the water tower near the village parking lot last Saturday night and embellished the tank with paint. The youths were arrested by police for their nocturnal work. To repaint the tank would cost several hundred dollars. Mayor Ray Toft pointed out: "I think they personally should have to work for the village every Saturday and during all school holidays from now until school lets out in the spring. Then they won't forget it."

Question: Was it Will Rogers or Elizabeth Taylor who said, "I never met a man I didn't like."

A touchdown late in the fourth quarter gave the Antioch Sequoits a 6-0 victory over Warren. Quarterback Steve Owens carried the ball from the one-yard-line on a sneak play with less than three minutes left. Antioch's Ralph Zanck intercepted a pass to kill Warren's last chance to tie the score or win the game. Bill Nader was the workhorse for the Sequoits, carrying the ball 28 times for 147 yards.

First place winners in Sunday's Ford Punt, Pass & Kick contest included Matthew Warner, Jeff Schmidt, Mitchell Wilt, Terry Lear and Timothy O'Neill. Tim Mieure was runnerup in the 12-year-old division won by Timothy O'Neill.

Illinois Bell moves its offices to the Plaza

Antioch's Illinois Bell manager, Bill Kaucher, cut the ceremonial ribbon Monday to officially open the company's new "PhoneCenter Store" in the Antioch business office.

The PhoneCenter opening came as the business office staff began the first day in its new office at 484 Orchard St., part of the Antioch Shopping Plaza.

Participating in the ribbon-cutting ceremony were: Dick Kirkpatrick, president of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce; Bill Patterson, vice president, Antioch Chamber of Commerce; Fred Walpole, president of the shopping plaza; and J.C. Sprague and P.L. Bowden, district commercial managers.

KAUCHER SAID AREA RESIDENTS now can shop in person for a wide variety of home telephones on display in the store.

He said those whose homes are already wired with Illinois Bell's modular, plug-in outlets can simply select the phones of their choice, take them home, and plug them in - thus saving the cost of an installer's visit.

"IT'S A WHOLE NEW concept in home telephone service," said Kaucher. "It will make it easier for our customers to decide what kinds of phones and services are best for their homes."

The new PhoneCenter Store will serve customers throughout the Chain o'Lakes area.

Customers can also continue to pay telephone bills and conduct other routine telephone business at the Antioch office. Hours are 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Plan 'May Day' car kit

The term MAY DAY has become a code phrase for a situation of dire distress. Since a day in May is often a warm, pleasant one, using it to refer to troubles winter-time motorists are apt to encounter seems like a contradiction in terms.

Nonetheless, here are some May Day tips to help motorists keep out of trouble in January or February.

In addition to usual winterizing services like tune-up, cooling system maintenance and tire care, make sure the car is equipped for emergencies. These include a first aid kit, traction mat, blanket, sand and shovel (your hub caps may serve as a shovel in a pinch).

If you plan to travel in areas subject to blizzards, carry extra heavy clothing, snow boots and even a warm sleeping bag.

You may also want to carry a tool kit, axe, nylon rope or chain for towing, a gasoline can and a siphon hose. In your tool kit place matches dipped in wax and sealed in a tight container, some non-perishable edibles like hard candy, and candles for warmth should you be stranded without gasoline.

Keep this survival kit in a water repellent container and hope you'll never need it.

A "PHONE-CENTER STORE," similar to this one, greets customers at Illinois Bell's new Antioch business office, 484 Orchard Plaza. The 13th opened by the company in the past few months, it offers a new dimension in residential telephone service to families in the Chain o'Lakes area whose telephone numbers begin with 223, 356, 395, 497, 546 or 587. It also makes shopping for telephones easier and more economical, said Bill Kaucher, local Illinois Bell manager.

page 1. The last five mayors of Antioch: Jim McMillen, "Missouri" Cunningham, Ray Toft, Bob Wilton and Mike Haley.

From 1950 until today, those five men have worked unbelievably hard to keep Antioch the fine community it is.

If you get time, drop in at the village hall and see the large color photo of our last five mayors, recorded on film by Joe Rush.

It's outstanding and heartwarming ... and an important capturing of part of Antioch's history.

APPARENTLY, ROBERT REDFORD hasn't come to Antioch to take a look at my swashbuckling wardrobe.

The actor, who some people think is good looking, was quoted in the press the other day as saying, after starring in "All the President's Men," he was amazed at how shabbily newspapermen dress.

He should see my collection of golf hats. Oh, by the way, the hole in my shoe is there on purpose ... for comfort.

'See How They Run' is a rollicking hit

By ERLENE PEARCE

PM&L Theatre scored another success with the fun-filled, rollicking hit, "See How They Run," by Phillip King.

Aileen Biel was hysterical as the prudish Miss Skillon, who feels her place in the parish and in the affection of Rev. Lionel Toop (Steve Woolaway) has been usurped by his new wife, Penelope, an American actress portrayed by Pam Guardi.

The antics begin when Corporal Clive Winton, an actor and old friend of Penelope's (Bill Sershon), shows up at the vicarage and changes from his uniform to one of Rev. Toop's suits so he and Penelope can see a play which is off-limits to servicemen.

IN THE MEANTIME, Miss Skillon tipples too much of the cooking sherry and winds up in (and out of) the closet.

To complicate matters further, Penelope's uncle, the Bishop of Lax, (Frank Greenwood) arrives unexpectedly and mistakes Corporal Winton for Rev. Toop. Rev. Toop loses his clothes to "the Intruder," a communist spy (expertly played by Josef Hunley) and ends up romping through the vicarage and garden in his underwear.

The Rev. Arthur Humphrey (Charlie Brown) arrives and adds to the confusion and ends up as another member of the chase scene.

NANCY BALMES IS TRULY funny as Ida, the maid, and does a great job stuffing Miss Skillon in the closet (again and again) and trying to straighten out the tangling web.

Due to the expert direction of Pam Hunley, this fast paced play doesn't miss a beat and takes us through the involved intricacies of the plot without a lull or hesitation.

It's unbelievable what the "magicians" at PM&L do with that tiny stage - creating the illusion of an entire vicarage complete with garden, hall, kitchen and upstairs bedroom (not to mention closet) and comfortably hold nine people cavorting in various hijinx.

The hilarious dialogue and actions of this play have the audience in stitches - laughing out loud the entire two hours.

Call 395-3055 for reservations ... there's still one more weekend, but it's been playing to full houses so don't hesitate.

LINDENHURST OFFICIALS GATHERED on the shores of Waterford Lake for the groundbreaking ceremony that launched U.S. Home's single family community, Waterford Woods. It will be built at Grass

352 new homes planned in Lindenhurst

Community officials and U.S. Home officers have broken ground for the 192 acre Waterford Woods residential community to be developed by U.S. Home at Old Beck and Grass Lake roads in Lindenhurst.

There will be 352 homes built on the property which includes a 70 acre lake and is edged by the 250 acre McDonald Natural Forest Preserve. The first section will have 60 homes; 20 of which will be available by winter.

FATHER DAVID J. LYNCH, pastor emeritus of Prince of Peace Catholic Church in Lake Villa delivered the invocation. Jack McNeil, a vice president of U.S. Home, was master of ceremonies and introduced Theodore Flanagan, mayor of Lindenhurst.

Rev. Rodger Pittman of St. Mark Lutheran church in Lindenhurst blessed the land and city officials joined with McNeil in breaking ground.

Present for the groundbreaking from Lindenhurst were planning commission chairman Arthur Bevins and members Jeff Lind and Vic Polson as well as trustees Jim Johnson and Claude Anderson.

Four models are presently being constructed along Grass Lake Rd. and are expected to be open for inspection in late December. In the meantime, Sam Hays, sales manager for Waterford Woods, is showing blueprints from the sales trailer on the property.

LLOYD PEDERSEN of Antioch, talented singer and entertainer, is in Minneapolis these days, working on his second album. A year ago Lloyd's pianist, Bill Webb of Milwaukee, began writing music while Lloyd was writing the lyrics. They hope to have 10 or 12 original songs finished by Jan. 1 ... then Lloyd will begin recording.

In the meantime he's working with his own orchestra in the Minneapolis area.

He recently worked in Reno, Nev., and was home this week for the first time following a couple of busy months.

LLOYD BECAME AN UNCLE when his brother Brian and wife Patricia, of West Bowles Rd., Antioch, had their first child, a beautiful baby girl named Breanna Lynn. Breanna Lynn was born at St. Therese hospital on Oct. 7.

The grandparents are Alfred and Florence Pedersen, and Patricia's parents, Robert and Stephanie Lecki, also of Antioch.

Phil Adesko had a birthday last Friday, the 14th, and Bill Barr became about 39 on Monday, the 17th. Dale Frasch had a happy birthday, we'll bet, on Tuesday, the 18th.

Hear tell it's Betty Smouse's birthday tomorrow, the 20th, and Jim McMillen (whose picture helps to grace our front page this week) will have another 39th birthday on Sunday, the 23rd. His son-in-law, John Kakacek, said Jim is like Jack Benny ... never admits to having reached 40.

JEANNE LINDGREN OF ANTIOCH, dressed as Twigs, Hawthorn Center's Courtyard Jester, will be helping children select works of art at Hawthorn Center this weekend during the 4th annual Art Festival sponsored by the North Shore Art League. The purpose

I would also like to thank my friend Mrs. Josephine Bosnick for her courage in walking to the back of the store and calling the police while the robbery was in progress.

Antioch girls win cross-country title

Antioch High School has the best girls cross-country team in Lake County.

The young ladies in Sequoit running togs proved that last Saturday when they won the "first-ever" girls meet in the annual Lake County classic at Wauconda.

Antioch's girls won with the lowest score of 61 points. Libertyville was second with 94 and six other teams trailed.

Lisa Price of Mundelein was the individual winner, but Carrie Corso of Antioch placed third and Cyndy Irman was 10th. Contributing to the championship were Diane Otten 15th, Nancy Harland 17th, Beth Pelkington 27th and Kathy Cole 33rd.

DEERFIELD'S OUTSTANDING TEAM won the varsity boys title with 19 points. Antioch was ninth among the 19 schools.

Todd McCallister of Deerfield won the individual title crown while Jim Eller of Antioch made the "all-county team" by placing 20th.

Matt Firestone of Antioch's sophomore team won a medal by placing 13th in his division.

Last Thursday the Sequoits won a double dual meet against Wauconda and Lake Zurich with Eller placing first, Zane Rogers 6th, Firestone 7th and Ed Sankey 10th.

ANTIOCH HIGH'S "MARCHING SEQUOITS" placed fourth last Saturday night in their first marching band competition at Arlington Heights. The 96-member unit, directed by John Olsar, had been working on its competition show since August.

VIKING SCOREBOARD

Heavyweights

The Viking Heavyweights defeated Fox Lake 19-6 Sunday, bringing the heavy-weight season record to 4 wins and 2 losses.

Tano Martino opened the scoring on a 45 yd. pass from Dean Berkiel early in the second quarter.

Fox Lake scored minutes later when it picked up a blocked punt and ran for the T.D.

Scott Poulter intercepted a pass and returned it 45 yds. as the half ended in a 6-6 deadlock.

In the second half Scott Poulter scored on a 7 yd. run and Berkiel went around end for 15 yds. for the third Viking T.D.

Poulter added an extra point.

Viking coaches praised the entire team for fine defensive and offensive play. However, Jon Olson, Martino and Poulter were credited with outstanding defensive play.

Lightweights

The Antioch Viking Lightweights extended their winning streak to 5 games by beating Fox Lake 13-6 Sunday.

Antioch got off to a slow start and Fox Lake scored 6 points in the first half.

Antioch got its game together in the second half with good defensive plays by Joe Emmerick, Kris Vogt, Andy Lehn, Pete Kessler, Matt Stevens and Chris Sheppard. (There were two important fumble recoveries by Tom Haviland and John Humphreys.)

Bob Thain ran the ball to Fox Lake's 20 yd. line. On a reverse, Pete Kessler, with the blocking help of Derek Olsen, ran 20 yds., tying the game 6-6. With only a few minutes remaining, Thain made a great 45 yd. run for the winning T.D. He also ran in the extra point, ending the game victoriously 13-6.

Featherweights

Buccaneers

The Antioch Viking Buccaneers won their first game Sunday, 6-0, against McHenry.

Both defenses did a fine job keeping the game scoreless into the 4th quarter. Coach Adams credited fine defensive plays to guards Mike Evans, Brad Poulter and Jamie Splayt, tackles Pat Merkel and Art Lee, ends Thadd Ernstmeier and Tim Neckerman, and defensive backs Jeff Sawisch, Greg Anderson, Tim Cardwell, Ed Antkowiak and Chuck Py.

The offense moved the ball to the 5-yd. line on first down in the 4th quarter with two minutes left to play. Quarterback Tom Adams ran the ball in for the score. Sean Mors and Scott Tracy were credited by coaches with excellent work on offense.

Raiders

The Viking Raiders scored an impressive 27-0 win over the Fox Lake Cardinals in a game which featured a balanced running and passing attack led by quarterbacks Les Zitzus and Todd Michalski. Two T.D.'s were scored on pass plays from Zitzus to Randy Mowen.

Two more T.D.'s were scored, one each by Zitzus and Dave Hanson, who also ran in extra points.

Fine runs were credited to Bob McMahon, coaches said.

The Cardinals had little success in running against the Viking defense, which forced a number of turnovers that proved costly to the Fox Lake Team.

Warriors

The Warriors lost to the Glenview Eagles 20-0.

Caring

In Funeral Service we have the unique problem of achieving efficiency without a sacrifice of human warmth and understanding. Without a trained staff working with well-timed precision a Funeral Service can turn from a reverential tribute and a source of satisfaction, when time has softened the edges of grief, to a shambles that cannot be erased from the memory. But while having things "go off without a hitch" may be a relief, it never will have the long-lasting, solacing effect of a solemn ritual aided by people who showed that they cared in every phase of the service. We care and by our works you shall know us.

this game was truly a 'team' victory. Everyone on the team was able to get game experience today!"

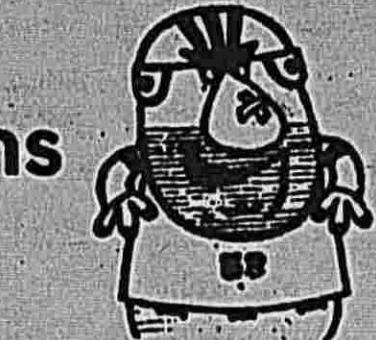

Round Lake scored twice in the fourth period, but not without a real fight from the Sequoits reserves. Coach Steve Scott cited improved line-play as one factor in the Antioch success: Chuck Bogaerts, Brian Beal, Ernst-meyer, Jim Davis and John Eckert.

THE SEQUOITS WILL TRAVEL TO Inter-division rival Woodstock this Friday for a 6 p.m. game with the undefeated Blue Streaks. Woodstock is unbeaten in six games and overall, shares the South Division lead with the also undefeated Jacobs sophomores.

Guess what, Shirley? You won the contest!

This will come as a surprise to Shirley Gutowski, because she didn't think she had won last week's Antioch News' football contest.

But she did. So we'll be sending her a $15 guest certificate at Andre's Steak House in Richmond and a $15 gift certificate from the BJ Rush Photo Studio.

Shirley picked Antioch to beat Round Lake by five points in last Saturday's game ... and the Sequoits triumphed by one point, 7-6.

But five points was close enough to win, since most of the others who favored Antioch did so by six, seven or more points.

THERE WAS QUITE A TIE for second among those who thought Antioch would score a six-point victory. They were Rick Gossman, Julie Mowen, Deanne Haviland, Tony Besson and Mike Haviland.

In the tie-breaker, Rick picked the Minnesota Vikings over the Bears by seven points. The Vikings won by six and consequently Rick will receive the second prize, a $10 gift certificate at Four Squires clothing store. We'll be sending his prize in the mail this week.

JULIE MOWEN AND DEANNE Haviland tied for third by picking the Vikings to win by three points. They each will receive a $5 gift certificate from Bernie's Deli.

Tony Besson and Mike Haviland just missed, picking Antioch by six and the Vikings by 10.

Another contest, with $45 worth of prizes, appears in today's Antioch News. Be sure to enter before Antioch and Woodstock clash at 8 p.m. Friday.

Why Pay More Than Necessary When You Finance Your Next Car? It's too bad, but most people do.

The reason: banks, finance companies, and most other lenders typically calculate interest in advance when you sign up for the loan. So, you pay interest on the entire amount you finance, regardless of how quickly you pay it back.

But with our revolutionary new Simple Interest Loan, interest is calculated daily and only on your outstanding balance. This means you can save significantly if you pre-pay or pay off the loan early.
